

BETHLEHEM, Pennsylvania – May 12, 2009 – Jim Edwards and Wes Schantz, partners of Molewski Financial Partners ("MFP"), gave a presentation on the topic Retirement Plan Fiduciary Best Practices at the 2009 Property Casualty Insurers Association of America ("PCI") Human Resources Conference, which was held at the Westin Savannah Harbor Golf Resort & Spa in Savannah, Georgia, from April 5-8, 2009. PCI is the nation's premier insurer trade association, representing over 1,000 companies that write 35.9 percent of the property casualty market. The association is also an advocate for sound public policy.

Edwards and Schantz are co-responsible for the strategic direction of the firm's Retirement Plan Services Group. Edwards, with over 10 years experience working with retirement plans and corporate clients, and Schantz, with over 20 years experience working with institutional, corporate, and private clients, both bring valuable knowledge and experience to complex client situations.

MFP is a highly specialized financial consulting and advisory firm of 20 professionals. For retirement plan sponsors, services include: negotiating reductions in plan fees and expenses, co-fiduciary to the investment selection and monitoring process, formalizing and documenting fiduciary roles and responsibilities, monitoring and benchmarking plan service providers, keeping clients informed of compliance updates, plan trends, plan design changes, and educational considerations that encourage plan participation and investment diversification. In addition, MFP helps companies develop, implement and informally fund nonqualified executive retirement programs to recruit, retain, reward and retire top performers. To learn more, visit www.molewskifinancial.com or call (610) 865-2600.

A member firm of the M Financial Group. Securities offered through M Holdings Securities, Inc., a Registered Broker/Dealer, Member FINRA/SIPC. Registered Investment Advisory Services offered through Molewski Financial Solutions, LLC, an independently owned and operated firm.